NEW BUILDING UPDATES

WHAT WILL THE NEW LIBRARY FEATURE?

The 57,000-square-foot building will include:

- enhanced collections and programs
- 76 off-street parking spaces
- drive-up convenience to pick up and drop off books and materials
- a variety of meeting areas
- exhibit space
- outdoor reading spaces
- ADA compliance, making it accessible for all

The LIBRARY will feature an ENHANCED CHILDREN’S AREA that includes:

- a program and craft room
- an outdoor program space
- play areas for young children
- learning space for elementary school-aged children
- middle school lounge space
- developmentally appropriate collections
- learning opportunities for children from birth through eighth grade
TEENS will have their own space as well as access to more books and materials.

OUR COMMUNITY CAN ENJOY SPENDING TIME IN A VARIETY OF NEW SPACES THAT INCLUDE:

- enhanced collections
- a quiet reading and study area
- an indoor/outdoor fireplace
- two outdoor balconies
- bookable study rooms
- two meeting rooms that can hold a variety of programs
- a demonstration kitchen
- a collaboration zone for group projects or solo work
WHEN WILL THE NEW LIBRARY OPEN?
After consulting with their building team, Library officials hope that construction will be completed after the beginning of the year. The opening day will be determined at a later date.

Library SERVICE WILL BE EXPANDED to include:

- a technology area where you can use or check out equipment, take classes, and create digital works
- a craft room for classes and drop-in projects
- lab spaces for experimenting

WILL THE LIBRARY BE CLOSED DURING THE MOVE TO THE NEW LIBRARY?
We will close, but dates are not yet set for our move or opening day. We’ll post updates to gpld.org and our Facebook page as we know more.
